

I think it is shameful how the media and the Republican party have denigrated a veteran who served his country honorably.